

Fellowships and Grant Opportunities – Quality Improvement

Due Date	Source	Name	Amount	Additional Information
Rolling application deadline; typically seek to recruit and interview fellows 12 to 24 months ahead of the planned start date	Northwestern University – Surgical Outcomes and Quality Improvement Center	Research Fellowship  Email CV to fellowship administrator, Kirsty Engelhardt ( kirsty.engelhardt@northwestern.edu ) for pre-screening and to request an application.	Two-year onsite fellowship in surgical outcomes, health services, and health policy research for surgical residents	The goal of this fellow is to help prepare surgical residents for a successful career in academic surgery by developing an expertise in surgical health services and outcomes research. Research fellows will spend a minimum of two years with the SOQIC research team conducting research, taking advanced degree courses, and working on developing a robust, meaningful research agenda. Research fellows will earn a Master’s or PhD degree that best suits their needs through one of the programs offered at Northwestern. The advanced degree tuition will be fully funded.
Variable	Department for Veterans Affairs	VA Quality Scholars Fellowship at UCSF  Additional information can be found on the national VAQS website .  Contact senior faculty at the site of interest for application information.	Stipend and federal government benefits	This two-year fellowship to improve Veteran healthcare quality through innovation, teaching and research. This interprofessional program combines a broad curriculum with an individualized approach to meet the needs of each healthcare professional’s interests.